

FAMILY TRAVEL & AUSTRIA

Family Travel Austria - Gluten Free

When I think about European family destinations and I feel I am just about done....something else comes to mind. And here we are with Austria. Yes, the land of the Sound of Music. Of course, that is our generation. But, if you decide to take this adventure, it might just be time to play this for the young ones! What a way to get them excited about this land of Sacher tortes (and yes, we can get them gluten free), palaces, Mozart, Viennese waltzes and rolling hills. Austria has plenty of interesting things to do and places to visit that will excite the entire family. From the world's oldest amusement park to the world's largest ice cave, and from salt mines to dinosaur parks, there is no end of entertainment for the little ones in Austria.

Vienna

Wiener Prater: When people talk about the Wiener Prater they often mean the "Wurstelprater", the world's oldest amusement park. But there is more to it than that, as it is actually a large public park in the city of Vienna

Schönbrunn Palace: Schönbrunn Palace offers specially designed children's tours, with attractions including a maze and a large zoo.

ZOOM Children's Museum: Children can investigate, marvel at, and participate in numerous exhibitions and events at this fabulous museum.

Haus des Meeres: Discover the flora and fauna of the deep!

Burgenland

Familypark Neusiedlersee Rides, playgrounds and a petting zoo - the kids will love Familypark Neusiedlersee, Austria's biggest theme park!

FAMILY TRAVEL & AUSTRIA

Carinthia

Obir Stalactite Caves: Any family holiday in Carinthia needs to account for a stop at the Obir Stalactite Caves, a fascinating natural wonder. During the magical light and audio show, the stones start to speak and the dragon who lives in the cave comes back to life. Tip: Warm clothing and prior reservation are recommended.

Minimundus: Miniature models of 150 of the most beautiful buildings in the world, all built true-to-scale.

Lower Austria

Carnuntum: Travel back in time to the days of the ancient Romans in this archaeological park.

Upper Austria

Dachstein Caves: Discover the fairytale world of the Ice Cave and follow in the footsteps of the cave researchers through the Mammut Cave and the Koppenbrüller Cave on your trip to Dachstein in Salzkammergut.

Hirschalm: Fairytale Park: Stay at Hirschalm Fairytale Park and watch the kids search for the magical Crystal, whizz down the summer toboggan track, and enjoy 4 giant trampolines plus a natural playground.

Hallstatt Salt Mine: Experience an exciting escapade through the oldest salt mine in the world.

SalzburgerLand

Giant Ice Caves in Werfen: The Eisriesenwelt in Werfen showcases the world's largest ice cave.

Hallein Salt Mine: A trip to the Hallein Salt Mine is a must for anyone visiting nearby Salzburg. Enjoy the location of the Sound of Music – on foot, by bus, by bicycle or even rickshaw. Gluten Free Travel -Us will work with local staff to make it happen.

FAMILY TRAVEL & AUSTRIA

Tirol

The Fisser Flitzer: This thrilling summer toboggan takes riders along a 2,200 m (7,218 ft) course at speeds of up to 45 km/h (28 m/h).

Witch's Water Hochsöll: This adventure park has interactive stations with a focus on woodland and water, a bare-foot trail, and arts and crafts.

Ötztal Umhausen: Archaeological park exploring life and work in the Neolithic period. Ötztal Umhausen also stages Stone Age festivals.

Alpine Zoo Innsbruck: A highlight for all the family when visiting Innsbruck, with 2000 animals and flora and fauna of the Alps.

Area 47: Rafting, canyoning, and more adventures, events and water fun at this outdoor park in Ötztal, Tirol.

Vorarlberg

Inatura: An interactive exhibition in Dornbirn that stimulates all the senses and lets you explore Vorarlberg's natural world.

Alpine Coaster Golm: An exhilarating 2.6 km (1.6 mi) alpine coaster ride between Latschau and Vadans with 44 jumps.

GLUTEN FREE TRAVEL-US.COM

FAMILY TRAVEL & AUSTRIA

© Google Maps